Types of Visa-

i. Transit Visa

Eligibility-

A transit Visa is granted to a foreigner for the sole purpose of enabling him/her to travel through India to a destination outside India. He/she should hold a valid passport, valid travel documents for the country of destination and the countries enroute.

Validity-

- A transit Visa will ordinarily be valid for a single journey and for the entry within 15 days from the date of issue, unless otherwise specified.
- If the journey through India is not performed within the period of validity of a transit Visa, a fresh transit visa will be required.
- A transit is only valid for direct transit, irrespective of the period of stay in transit, which cannot be more than 3 days for each visit.

Persons in direct transit through India-

A Person travelling by air-

A transit Visa is not required by a foreigner passing through, in direct transit by air, travelling onward through India, provided he/she does not leave the specified precincts of the airport.

In case the foreigner desires to resume his/her journey by the next regularly scheduled flight, he /she may be allowed entry on a temporary landing permit, the validity of which will not be normally exceed 3 days, subject to latest instructions.

A Person travelling by sea-

A transit Visa is not required by a foreigner who does not leave the ship while it halts at an Indian port. In case, the foreigner desires to leave the ship during its halt at an Indian port, he/she may be allowed to do so on a temporary landing permit not exceeding 3 days.

Note-

In all cases where a person is allowed entry into India on a temporary landing permit, while in transit by air or by sea, the permit will be granted on the surrender of the passport/ document of identity to the immigration authorities at the port. The documents will be returned to the person at the time of his/her departure in exchange for the landing permit.

Important Note –

- The document should be arranged in the sequential order given above and securely stapled to the application.
- In respect of bank statements, only the first two pages of statement should be submitted.
- All attached documents should be photocopied back to back (on both sides of the paper) to keep the number of enclosures low.
- All photographed documents should be signed/self-attested by the applicant as being true copies of the original.
- Each visa application is considered on its merits and the Embassy may seek additional documents/information at any stage during processing of the requests. Receipt of visa application and fees by the Embassy does not guarantee issue of visa.

ii. Tourist Visa

Tourist Visa is for tourism purposes only and visit should not be mixed with Business, Studies, Medical Treatment, Conference, Employment, Journalism, etc. for which specific visas are required. The applicant needs to provide copy of Identity Card and Business Card, and proof of sound financial standing in order to support his/her stay in India.

A. Tourist Visa on Arrival-

The Government of India has introduced 'Tourist Visa-on-Arrival' for citizens of the following countries: Finland, Japan, Luxembourg, New Zealand, Singapore Cambodia, Vietnam, Philippines, Laos, Myanmar, Indonesia and Republic of Korea. (Note- Citizens of Mexico and Belize are not eligible for Tourist Visa on arrival). The main highlights of the scheme are as follows:

Eligibility:

Citizens of the above-named countries:

- Whose sole objective of visiting India is sight-seeing, casual visit to meet friends or relatives, etc.,
- who do not have a residence or occupation in India;
- who hold passports with minimum six months validity, and a re-entry permit if that is required under the law of the country of nationality of the applicant;
- who is a person of assured financial standing (individuals must have a return ticket and sufficient money to spend during his/her stay in India);
- who is not considered an undesirable person;

Validity:

It will be valid for 30 days with single entry facility.

Conditions:

It shall be non-extendable and non-convertible except with the approval of the Ministry of Home Affairs in exceptional circumstances.

Only two visits on a Tourist Visa-on-Arrival shall be permissible in a calendar year.

Entry Points:

The "Tourist Visa on Arrival" facility for the passport holders from the above mentioned eleven countries will be extended at the following airports in India: Delhi, Mumbai, Chennai, Kolkata, Trivandrum, Bangalore, Hyderabad and Kochi. It will not be available at any other Immigration Check Post.

Fee:

A fee of USD 60.00 or equivalent in Indian rupees will be charged for each visa (subject to revision from time to time).

Other Conditions:

It shall be allowed for a maximum of two times in a calendar year to an applicant.

It shall not be applicable to holders of Diplomatic/Official passports.

All extant laws/rules/procedures governing entry, stay and exit of foreigners in India will apply to holders of 'Tourist Visa-on-Arrival'.

Note: The 'Tourist Visa-on-Arrival' is only a facility to citizens of above-named countries who are unable to apply for a visa at an Indian Embassy/Consulate due to some reason. In general, all eligible applicants are advised to apply at the nearest Indian Embassy/Consulate for a visa.

Gratis Visa facility is available for all Visa categories for the nationals of Myanmar. No ICWF fee would be charged.

B. Regular Tourist Visa –

Multy-entry, valid for 3 months up to 5 years (Tourist visa over 3 months period is subject to approval on case to case basis) it is non-extendable and non-convertible to other types of visas. FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQS)RELATING TO TOURIST VISA-

1. As per the extant instructions of the Government of India, a Tourist Visa can only be granted to a foreigner who does not have a residence or occupation in India and whose sole objective of visiting India is recreation, sightseeing, casual visit to meet friends and relatives etc. No other activity is permissible on a Tourist Visa. The Tourist Visa is non-extendable and non-convertible.

2. Instructions were earlier issued by the Government stipulating that there should be a gap of at least 2 months between two visits to India on a Tourist Visa. This matter has been reviewed by the Government and it has been decided to lift the restriction of two-month gap on re-entry of foreign nationals coming to India except in case of nationals of Afghanistan, China, Pakistan, Iraq, Sudan, foreigners of Pakistan origin and Stateless persons.

3. Frequently asked questions with regard to the above issues and replies thereto are outlined below for information, guidance and compliance of all concerned:

Q.1: Whether the gap of two months between two visits would apply to all Tourist Visa holders?

Ans.: The gap of two months between two visits on a Tourist Visa will apply to nationals of Afghanistan, China, Pakistan, Iraq, Sudan, foreigners of Pakistan origin and Stateless persons.

Q.2: How will medical tourists who return regularly to India for onward treatment be handled?

Ans.: For persons coming for medical treatment, there is a separate category of Medical Vis. Foreign nationals coming for medical treatment will have to come only on Medical Visa and not on Tourist Vis.

Q.3 How will the family members of diplomatic households who do not qualify for diplomatic visas (e.g. older children or domestic partners) be handled?

Ans.: The family members of diplomatic households who do not qualify for diplomatic visas may have to come on an 'Entry (X); Visa if eligible. If they come on Tourist Visa, the restrictions as laid down will be applicable.

Q.4 How will individuals who come to India to volunteer for various charity organizations be treated? Many of them travel around the region while volunteering in India for extended periods on tourist visas.

Ans.: A person coming for voluntary work can apply for 'Employment (E)' Visa. Tourist Visa is not the appropriate visa in such cases.

Q.5 What activities are permissible on 'Tourist' Visa?

Ans.: Tourist Visa is granted for visiting India for recreations, sightseeing, casual visit to meet friends and relatives etc. No other activity is permissible on a Tourist Visa.

Q.6 Can a person holding 'Tourist Visa indulge in Business activities?

Ans.: No. If a person holding 'Tourist' visa is found to be involved in Business activities, action may be taken for visa violation.

Q.7 Can a person holding "Tourist" visa accept employment?

Ans.: No. If a person is found working, while holding "Tourist" visa, he/she may be booked for visa violation.
